Application Deadline: priority will be given to applications postmarked no later than March 2, 2017

Application Date: _____ PUC Start Term: _____

I. Application Procedures

Please complete this application, scan, and email it to music@puc.edu with the following items as a complete package:

Email preferred; documents may also be mailed to:

Pacific Union College Music Dept., One Angwin Avenue, Angwin, CA 94508

1. An essay explaining your interest in music and why you should receive a scholarship.
2. A high quality video of your best solo performance (group performances will not be accepted), and submit as an MP4, YouTube file, or DVD. If the recording is submitted in an unreadable format the application may be disqualified. *You may request a live audition if you are planning to be on campus (see Audition Guidelines below).

Audition Guidelines

Be prepared to perform two or three pieces from the standard classical literature for your instrument or voice. Your selections should demonstrate your musicality and technical skill. Please select works that have contrasting style—fast and technical; slow and lyrical. Each piece should generally be by memory and be between 3 and 10 minutes each, with preference given to memorized works (accompanist may use music.)

- I am submitting an MP4 video file (MP3 audio files are not acceptable.)
- I am submitting a YouTube link to my audition.
Web Address: _____
(Please also copy your URL into the body of your submission email.)
- I am submitting a DVD with this application.
- I would like to audition in person.
Call the PUC department of music office to schedule an appointment, (707) 965-6201
- I would like to audition during the PUC campus event checked below:
 - College Days: February 12-14, 2017
 - Academy Choir Festival: February 22-25, 2017
 - College Days: April 9-11, 2017 (Note: this event falls after the priority deadline.)

IV. Available Scholarships

I am applying for (check those that apply to you):

- Arts Scholarship (five renewable awards, available to new, incoming PUC students, of up to $3,000; participation in a department of music performance group required)
- Lewis Music Scholarship (one scholarship of approximately $1,000 available to students in any area for music study)
- Loye Organ Scholarship (approximately six $1,000 awards available to any student to study organ toward becoming a church organist)
- Mayes Music Ministry Scholarship (one scholarship of approximately $500 per year to study for music ministry—usually given to vocal or organ majors)
- Edward Charles (Teddy) Mackett Brass Scholarship (one scholarship of approximately $500 for a brass student involved in PUC instrumental ensembles)
- Other (various scholarships dependent on annually donated funds—available to any music student)

V. Recipient's Agreement

I understand if I receive a scholarship I will be expected to be in a department of music ensemble that includes my area of musical expertise and to support department programs. Additional service (such as participation in recruiting activities, church presentations, etc.) may be requested by the college from time to time. I also understand the scholarship is for the entire year, so one third of it will be applied to my bill for each quarter I am registered at PUC. If I accept financial aid from Pacific Union College, I understand there is a mutual commitment on the part of myself and PUC, which is bound as a member of the National Association of Schools of Music to its Code of Ethics. Therefore I agree after May 1 of the calendar year of matriculation I will not consider any other offer from an institutional member of the NASM for the 2017-2018 academic year except with the express written consent of the chair of the department of music at PUC.
