STAY ON TRACK

Use this checklist to be ready to be at PUC.
GET THINGS DONE

AUGUST
☐ Hit the road to visit as many colleges as you can. Learn what you like and what’s not for you.
☐ Bust out those flashcards and get ready to ace the ACT or SAT.

SEPTEMBER
☐ Start applying to your top schools.
☐ Create your FSA ID at fafsa.gov.
☐ Gather financial paperwork to submit the FAFSA in October.
☐ Get the inside scoop by watching an online PUC financial aid workshop.
☐ See how much aid you may qualify for by using PUC’s net price calculator at puc.edu/npc.
☐ Ask your biggest fans to write a reference for you.

OCTOBER
☐ Submit your FAFSA starting October 1. PUC’s code is 001258.
☐ Submit the PUC Financial Aid Application and start working with your PUC financial counselor to see how much aid you qualify for.
☐ Remember those references? Send yours to PUC along with your transcripts.
☐ Attend a PUC financial aid workshop near you. For dates, visit puc.edu/workshops.

NOVEMBER
☐ Visit puc.edu/scholarships to see what you qualify for and to apply.

DECEMBER
☐ Use Christmas break to check sites like Fastweb.com and Niche.com for scholarships.

JANUARY
☐ If you need to, retake the ACT or SAT.

FEBRUARY
☐ Time is running out to see PUC in action! Come for College Days February 11-13, 2018.

MARCH
☐ March 2 is the Cal Grant deadline. Visit calgrants.org for info.
☐ To secure your place in classes and your dorm room, pay your $200 enrollment fee and submit your housing reservation form at puc.edu/reserve.

APRIL
☐ Registration for fall classes at PUC begins April 9.
☐ Last chance! PUC’s final College Days of the year is April 8-10, 2018. Don’t miss out!

MAY
☐ Start looking for a summer job! If you work at an SDA youth camp, PUC matches 100% of your earnings that are applied to tuition (up to $2,000).

SUMMER
☐ CELEBRATE! You’ve graduated.
☐ Submit the PUC Health Information Form.
☐ Better safe than sorry—confirm you’re all set for fall quarter with your PUC financial counselor.
☐ Talk with your new roommate and start shopping for supplies for your new dorm room.
