Note: Students who demonstrate biblical knowledge (by passing a waiver exam or presenting religion coursework from high school) may substitute an elective religion course in place of RELG 105.
- One approved “Studying Scripture” course that explores and critically analyzes biblical texts and themes. (3 hours)
- One approved “Exploring SDA Life and Thought” course that explores and critically analyzes Seventh-day Adventist beliefs and values. (3 hours)

Health & Fitness, Practical & Applied Arts (6 hours)

PUC expects graduates to demonstrate the knowledge, skills, and inclination necessary to sustain a healthy, well-balanced life. Therefore all baccalaureate graduates must complete the following requirements. These courses may be taken at PUC or may be transferred.

- One theory course in the area of nutrition or health education. Minimum 2 quarter hours total.
- Two exercise science activity courses. One must include a significant aerobic activity component. Minimum 2 quarter hours total.
- Two practical and applied arts courses, each from a different area. Minimum 2 quarter hours total. Areas include:
 - A. Interpersonal Skills
 - B. Management of Information & Finance (met by major)
 - C. Outdoor & Survival Skills
 - D. Visual and Performing Arts

Business at PUC

The Pacific Union College Department of Business Administration and Economics offers several programs to satisfy the differing needs and desires of students majoring in business. Students prepare to meet the demands of graduate school and the business and economic challenges facing them upon the completion of their college program. To help achieve this, the department teaches students how to work with people and solve problems, while giving practical training that will prepare them for a wide variety of careers. All PUC business degree programs include an internship, and students are actively engaged with the local business community through various projects.

The natural beauty of rural Angwin, combined with excellent academic programs, provides students with exceptional opportunities for learning and for forming new friendships in a Christian college environment.
