

Faculty Job Posting

Position Title	Full, Assistant, or Associate Professor of Communication
Department/School	Arts, Humanities and Professions
Status	Part-Time (0.5 FTE)
Classification	Non-Exempt (Hourly)
Tenure	Yes, in alignment with eligibility requirements.
Compensation & Benefits	Placement of the new hire within the salary pay grade is dependent on qualifications and professional teaching experience. The pay grade assigned to this position ranges from $28.27 - $37.80 hourly. Benefits: May include retirement, paid time off, and more.
Job Description	The part-time Faculty Member in Communication is responsible for providing high-quality instruction in assigned communication courses and supporting student learning and academic success. The position teaches courses as assigned, maintains effective communication with students, assesses student performance, and contributes to a positive learning environment consistent with the mission of Pacific Union College.
Qualification & Experience	• Master's degree in Communication, Journalism, Media Studies, Public Relations, or a closely related field from an accredited institution. • Demonstrated ability to provide effective undergraduate instruction and support student learning. • Commitment to academic excellence, student mentorship, and the mission and values of Pacific Union College. • College-level teaching experience preferred. • Professional experience in communication, media, journalism, public relations, or a related field preferred. • Experience using instructional technology and learning management systems preferred.
Application Process	Prospective candidates interested in the position are asked to complete PUC Application for Employment Form, attach a cover letter, CV, and statement of teaching philosophy, and forward it to hr@puc.edu .
Questions	For further information, please contact Human Resources at hr@puc.edu . To learn more about our program, visit our website at http://www.puc.edu/academics .