What's New

AT PACIFIC UNION COLLEGE

PUC ANNOUNCES SEMESTER CONVERSION AND FUTURE CHANGES On October 22, PUC officially announced its conversion from a quarter-based academic schedule to a semester system, effective fall 2028. As the college prepares for this transition, PUC assures students it will remain committed to their academic progress and provide a clear path to graduation without delays or additional tuition costs. This conversion will create new opportunities, allow more time for in-depth course engagement, and provide greater flexibility in learning experiences, aligning PUC more closely with most colleges and universities nationwide while prioritizing students' academic experience and outcomes.

FALL WEEK OF WORSHIP: RADIATING THE LOVE AND DISCIPLESHIP OF JESUS From October 12 to 16, PUC held its Fall Week of Worship Service. Gathering students, faculty, and staff in Dauphinee Chapel, Director of Young Growing Leaders and Pastor Aren Rennacker, '11, delivered a message about radiating love, being a disciple of Christ, and sharing the light from within.

PUC RISES IN NICHE RANKINGS PUC is happy to share its standings in Niche.com's 2027 Best Colleges in America. In the report, PUC ranked #49 for Best Colleges for Nursing in America, #51 of 95 Best Colleges in California, and #82 of 355 for Best Christian Colleges in America. Specifically in California, PUC ranked #6 of 46 for Best Colleges for Nursing, #10 of 17 for Best Christian Colleges, and #11 of 94 Safest College Campuses.

SOCIETY OF ADVENTIST COMMUNICATORS CONVENTION RECOGNIZES PUC From October 15-17, PUC Communication Department Chair Tara Hargrove, PUC communication major Sebastian Alvarez, and MA student Abigail Suttan attended the Society of Adventist Communicators Convention in Orlando, Florida. Hosted by the North American Division, this annual event brings together Adventist communication professionals, educators, and students to learn, network, and be inspired.

PUC HOSTS GIRLS' VOLLEYBALL TOURNAMENT From October 1-3, PUC hosted its Girls' Volleyball Tournament for 12 schools throughout California. About 200 students and coaches from Redlands Adventist Academy, La Sierra Academy, Glendale Adventist Academy, Newbury Park Adventist Academy, Armona Union Academy, Pleasant Hill Adventist Academy, Pine Hills Adventist Academy, Central Valley Christian Academy, Lodi Academy, Monterey Bay Academy, Mountain View Academy, and PUC Prep competed in the college's first high school tournament of the school year.

PUC PARTNERS WITH MARANATHA FOR MCREYNOLDS HALL RENOVATION From August 10 to 20, 36 Maranatha Volunteers International and PUC volunteers, faculty, staff, students, and community members collaborated to renovate McReynolds Hall, a residence hall primarily used when academies and other groups visit campus. The PUC Administration team has anticipated Maranatha's return to PUC for a few years now, since their last project visit in 2019, when they successfully renovated and refreshed 31 Newton Hall dorm rooms and bathrooms, and continued the same project in 2020.

PUC WELCOMES BRANDON BROOME AS NEW ATHLETIC DIRECTOR PUC is delighted to announce that Brandon Broome has been appointed as PUC's new athletic director, bringing 16 years of coaching and program-development experience. With six years of collegiate-level experience, Broome envisions creating a place where athletes pursue excellence and acceptance is a priority.

PUC'S 2026 GRADUATING CLASS HONORS ALLISON FOX During Commencement on June 14, the 2026 graduates at PUC honored Allison Fox with a memorial plaque as their class gift. Fox, a PUC alum who served as an access services librarian and honors program director, sadly passed away in 2023. Senior Class President Jacqueline Messing presented their gift after her presidential speech, sharing how they wanted to select a gift that reflected the lasting impact one individual can have on a community.

PACIFIC UNION COLLEGE
2027
HOMECOMING
is April 16-17
LEARN MORE
Visit puc.edu/homecoming

UPCOMING EVENTS:

Nov. 13-16: College Days
Email visit@puc.edu for more information about high school visits.

Nov. 15: 5 p.m. Fall Fest in the PUC Gym

Dec. 1: 6 p.m. Christmas Tree Lighting

Fri. Dec. 4: 8 p.m., & Sat., Dec. 5: 4 p.m. Christmas Candlelight Concert in the PUC Sanctuary

What's New

AT PACIFIC UNION COLLEGE

PUC ANNOUNCES SEMESTER CONVERSION AND FUTURE CHANGES On October 22, PUC officially announced its conversion from a quarter-based academic schedule to a semester system, effective fall 2028. As the college prepares for this transition, PUC assures students it will remain committed to their academic progress and provide a clear path to graduation without delays or additional tuition costs. This conversion will create new opportunities, allow more time for in-depth course engagement, and provide greater flexibility in learning experiences, aligning PUC more closely with most colleges and universities nationwide while prioritizing students' academic experience and outcomes.

FALL WEEK OF WORSHIP: RADIATING THE LOVE AND DISCIPLESHIP OF JESUS From October 12 to 16, PUC held its Fall Week of Worship Service. Gathering students, faculty, and staff in Dauphinee Chapel, Director of Young Growing Leaders and Pastor Aren Rennacker, '11, delivered a message about radiating love, being a disciple of Christ, and sharing the light from within.

PUC RISES IN NICHE RANKINGS PUC is happy to share its standings in Niche.com's 2027 Best Colleges in America. In the report, PUC ranked #49 for Best Colleges for Nursing in America, #51 of 95 Best Colleges in California, and #82 of 355 for Best Christian Colleges in America. Specifically in California, PUC ranked #6 of 46 for Best Colleges for Nursing, #10 of 17 for Best Christian Colleges, and #11 of 94 Safest College Campuses.

SOCIETY OF ADVENTIST COMMUNICATORS CONVENTION RECOGNIZES PUC From October 15-17, PUC Communication Department Chair Tara Hargrove, PUC communication major Sebastian Alvarez, and MA student Abigail Suttan attended the Society of Adventist Communicators Convention in Orlando, Florida. Hosted by the North American Division, this annual event brings together Adventist communication professionals, educators, and students to learn, network, and be inspired.

PUC HOSTS GIRLS' VOLLEYBALL TOURNAMENT From October 1-3, PUC hosted its Girls' Volleyball Tournament for 12 schools throughout California. About 200 students and coaches from Redlands Adventist Academy, La Sierra Academy, Glendale Adventist Academy, Newbury Park Adventist Academy, Armona Union Academy, Pleasant Hill Adventist Academy, Pine Hills Adventist Academy, Central Valley Christian Academy, Lodi Academy, Monterey Bay Academy, Mountain View Academy, and PUC Prep competed in the college's first high school tournament of the school year.

PUC PARTNERS WITH MARANATHA FOR MCREYNOLDS HALL RENOVATION From August 10 to 20, 36 Maranatha Volunteers International and PUC volunteers, faculty, staff, students, and community members collaborated to renovate McReynolds Hall, a residence hall primarily used when academies and other groups visit campus. The PUC Administration team has anticipated Maranatha's return to PUC for a few years now, since their last project visit in 2019, when they successfully renovated and refreshed 31 Newton Hall dorm rooms and bathrooms, and continued the same project in 2020.

PUC WELCOMES BRANDON BROOME AS NEW ATHLETIC DIRECTOR PUC is delighted to announce that Brandon Broome has been appointed as PUC's new athletic director, bringing 16 years of coaching and program-development experience. With six years of collegiate-level experience, Broome envisions creating a place where athletes pursue excellence and acceptance is a priority.

PUC'S 2026 GRADUATING CLASS HONORS ALLISON FOX During Commencement on June 14, the 2026 graduates at PUC honored Allison Fox with a memorial plaque as their class gift. Fox, a PUC alum who served as an access services librarian and honors program director, sadly passed away in 2023. Senior Class President Jacqueline Messing presented their gift after her presidential speech, sharing how they wanted to select a gift that reflected the lasting impact one individual can have on a community.

PACIFIC UNION COLLEGE
2027
HOMECOMING
is April 16-17
LEARN MORE
Visit puc.edu/homecoming

UPCOMING EVENTS:

Nov. 13-16: College Days
Email visit@puc.edu for more information about high school visits.

Nov. 15: 5 p.m. Fall Fest in the PUC Gym

Dec. 1: 6 p.m. Christmas Tree Lighting

Fri. Dec. 4: 8 p.m., & Sat., Dec. 5: 4 p.m. Christmas Candlelight Concert in the PUC Sanctuary