

Pacific Union College

Student Leadership Eligibility

(Minimum requirements for club, class, and other leadership positions; SA leaders, RA's, student senators may have additional requirements and process.)

Student Leadership Eligibility requirements:

- Complete Eligibility Verification
 - be a full time student while in office (successfully complete a minimum of 12 units each quarter),
 - good citizenship and no record of citizenship probation*
 - hold and maintain a minimum cumulative gpa of 2.5; not on academic probation
 - receive a recommendation from residence hall dean
_____ (dean recommendation signature)
 - hold only one major office at a time
 - complete all of the above and provide candidate signature below
_____ (Student Life signature)

- Sign Leadership Pledge and Code of Ethics

Leadership Pledge and Code of Ethics

As a student leader, I commit myself to the policies of Pacific Union College and to actively demonstrate a life of integrity. I promise to take seriously and responsibly my duties as a student leader, maintain a positive attitude toward others, and remember that my power, responsibilities, accountability, and credibility are vital to the students I will serve. As a representative of Pacific Union College, I will present myself in a way that reflects the high values and ideals for which Pacific Union College stands (see Student Life Agreement attached).

Student leaders may be removed from office for failure to maintain eligibility and to uphold the above leadership pledge and code of ethics.

I have read the Leadership Pledge and Code of Ethics; agree to abide by the Student Life Agreement and commit to live within these policies and guidelines as a student and as a leader at Pacific Union College.

Print Name: _____

Signature: _____

Date: _____

Club and Office: _____

One year after successfully completing all Student Conduct Committee assignments, a student on probation may petition the Student Conduct Committee for leadership eligibility consideration.

OUR STUDENT LIFE AGREEMENT

Pacific Union College is a Christian liberal arts college sponsored by the Seventh-day Adventist Church. Students seeking an education in Pacific Union College's environment have a responsibility to help preserve the essential qualities that make the College distinctive.

The college desires for its students to become experienced at making personal decisions based on Seventh-day Adventist principles of Christian living. By choosing to enroll at PUC, you are expressing a willingness to make decisions which are guided by the following principles:

1. To seek truth and to consider the Bible as life's ultimate guidebook.
2. To participate actively in a lifestyle which includes personal devotions, group worship and service to others.
3. To deal honestly in all aspects of life.
4. To maintain high standards of taste and decency in conduct, expression and citizenship.
5. To respect the property, personal dignity, time, and right to privacy of others.
6. To treat others with graciousness, demonstrating tolerance for diversity.
7. To maintain a lifestyle of moral purity.
8. To value and pursue a healthful lifestyle, including good nutrition, regular exercise and adequate rest. (The use of alcohol, tobacco, illegal drugs or the misuse of prescription drugs is not acceptable.)
9. To dress modestly, appropriately and in good taste.
10. To develop an appreciation for great art, music and literature.
11. To help others fulfill their student life agreement.
12. To faithfully abide by PUC's policies, understanding that failure to do so may result in withdrawal from PUC.

As a student, you understand that Pacific Union College is a unique, Christian institution. You wish to attend PUC of your own free will, and choose to live by its principles and support its doctrines both on and off campus.