Theology and Religion majors investigate the inspiring and life-changing truths of the Christian faith. Such exploration brings to life the Word of God in all its theological, historical, ethical, spiritual, and practical dimensions. The Theology Department offers two majors and six minors.

The Theology major is recommended for those who want to enter Christian ministry, specifically pastoral ministry, youth ministry, lay ministry, chaplaincy, or the teaching of religion. This major provides pre-Seminary education and training that meets the entrance requirements for the Master of Divinity (M.Div.) degree at the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary at Andrews University. The North American Division (NAD) of Seventh-day Adventists recognizes the M.Div. degree as the standard degree for pastoral ministry within the NAD. Those who desire to enter pastoral ministry should ultimately take the M.Div. graduate degree sometime after completion of the B.A. in Theology. Unusual circumstances or age, however, may allow for the completion of a professional Master of Arts (M.A.) degree in a related field, such as the M.A. in Pastoral Ministry, instead of the normal M.Div. degree.

The Religion major is designed for those who want a solid background in religion but are planning careers in other fields, such as teaching, health professions, and law.

The six minors provide a formal framework for general students who wish to focus on a particular area of religious study.

This major is designed for the student who is preparing for Christian ministry, including pastoral ministry, youth ministry, chaplaincy, and teaching religion. The major is particularly suitable for the student who plans to seek graduate seminary education.

Students who desire to take this major must progress through the following two stages of the Ministerial Studies Program:

Stage I: Admission into the Program.

Evaluation and guidance that is focused upon helping students make sure that they are entering upon the right career path, given their interests, capabilities, and personality. When this process is successfully completed at the end of the second year, the student is invited to join the Ministerial Studies Program.

Stage II: Advancement to Candidacy.

Assessment of the commitment and potential of senior theology majors for successful ministry, and preparation for effectively presenting themselves to hiring agencies. Acceptance for Advancement to Candidacy is required for graduation as a theology major and for inclusion in the senior hiring interviews.

Exceptions to these criteria are considered individually and may be approved by the Theology Department faculty.

Each student successfully completing the Ministerial Studies Program, the academic requirements of this major, and the required Summer in Ministry Internship is eligible for recommendation by the Theology Department as a candidate for entrance into pastoral ministry or the seminary and subsequent work in some branch of Christian ministry.
