AT PACIFIC UNION COLLEGE

WINTER STUDENT WEEK OF WORSHIP: DESTINED TO EXPERIENCE GOD

From January 26 to January 31, Pacific Union College students Britney Hernandez, Alexis Villareal, Kaia Miller, Erick Lopez, Emma Gheen, and Kyler VanHook shared passionate testimonies and sermons during the Winter Student Week of Worship service.

PUC FORWARD CAMPAIGN LAUNCHES FOR CAMPUS ENHANCEMENTS

For years, various projects have been deeply considered by the administration at Pacific Union College. At the start of 2025, Vice President for Advancement Carlos Garcia, with the help of various departments, created the PUC Forward Campaign to raise funds for numerous renovations to highlight overall campus and student life, beautifying and improving the campus.

AVIATION STUDENTS DEVELOP MOTION PLATFORM SOFTWARE FOR SIMULATOR PROGRAM

This past fall quarter, Pacific Union College Aviation Program Director

Nathan Tasker taught the AVIA-402: Simulation Innovation course for the first time. The purpose of this class was to further the program's two prototype simulators. One group focused on the full-motion, six-degrees-of-freedom platform purchased with funds from the 2025 VersaCare grant. This platform is a highly respected, cutting-edge device that is currently marketed for realistic, immersive simulation.

16 SCHOOLS COMPETE IN PIONEERS INVITATIONAL ACADEMY BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

From January 21 to 24, Pacific Union College and PUC Preparatory hosted 450 students and sponsors for the Pioneers Invitational Academy Basketball Tournament. For the girls' competition, Escondido Adventist Academy won first place, with Sacramento Adventist Academy in second and Hawaiian Mission Academy in third. Redlands Adventist Academy won first place in the boys competition, with Newbury Park Adventist Academy second and Sacramento Adventist Academy third.

PSYCHOLOGY & SOCIAL WORK CLUB: A SUPPORT SYSTEM & COMMUNITY FOR STUDENTS

PUC's Psychology and Social Work Club serves as a community and support system for students who love psychology and social work. This year's club president is senior Madison Dietrich, who wants to create a club culture centered on unity, respect, and shared purpose. "Since PUC is a smaller campus, our club plays an important role in helping students feel connected within the department, supporting one another academically and personally, and creating a welcoming space where people feel encouraged throughout their journey," she shared.

AN INTERVIEW WITH CLASS PRESIDENT JACQUELINE MESSING

When Jacqueline Messing was a freshman at PUC and working behind the scenes during the 2021-2022 graduation, she listened to that year's senior class president speak. At that moment, she was unexpectedly overwhelmed and had full-body chills. Jacqueline vividly imagined herself sitting in those chairs one day, surrounded by her peers, stepping into the next chapter of her life.
