

WHAT'S NEW

AT PACIFIC UNION COLLEGE

PUC HONORS THE CLASS OF 2026

From June 12 to 14, Pacific Union College proudly celebrated 316 graduates from 13 states and six countries, awarding a total of 345 degrees across the nursing, business, psychology, social work, visual arts, biology, world languages, and communication departments—awarding 169 associate's degrees, 167 bachelor's degrees, and nine master's degrees. Filling the seats at every service over the weekend were proud parents, faculty and staff, friends, and colleagues of the graduates who have left a lasting impact on the college campus.

PUC NAMES ROSS WINKLE AS EDUCATOR OF THE YEAR

On May 21, Pacific Union College Professor of New Testament Ross Winkle was honored as the 2025-2026 Educator of the Year during a special Community program at the PUC Church. He was selected by the student body for his spirited teaching, dedicated mentorship, and commitment to faith.

PUC LAUNCHES ADVENTIST AVIATION MISSION MUSEUM IN NEW FACILITY The Pacific Union College aviation program recently introduced the Adventist Aviation Museum in its new facility to alumni, students, faculty and staff, and community members. Across from Fisher Hall, where the program currently houses one of its simulators and classrooms, this new facility, aside from the Virgil O. Parrett Field Airport, serves as a modern-day exhibition honoring fellow Adventist missionaries and aviation pioneers while offering ample space for students in the fast-growing program.

PUC'S RN TO BSN PROGRAM RANKS #2 IN NURSE.ORG FOR 2026 The Pacific Union College nursing program is pleased to announce that, alongside its latest ranking of #7 for producing the highest-paid nurses nationwide, it has now been ranked #2 on Nurse.org for the accessibility, online and in-person offerings, length, and academic quality of its fast-growing RN-to-BSN program.

PUC RANKS #7 IN PRODUCING HIGHEST PAID NURSES NATIONWIDE In May, Pacific Union College was ranked #7 for its bachelor's program in nursing, with graduates earning a median annual income of $141,000. PUC's RN-to-BSN program is accredited by the Accreditation Commission for Education in Nursing (ACEN) and is designed to prepare registered nurses for leadership, graduate education, population health, evidence-based practice, and professional nursing roles in today's healthcare environment.

PUC LAUNCHES HUMANITIES

DEGREE Through the collaborative efforts of those within the School of Arts, Humanities, and Professional Studies, Pacific Union College is thrilled to announce that its new Associate of Arts degree in Humanities has been approved and will officially be open for enrollment in fall 2026.

DIogenES FILM FESTIVAL: CELEBRATING PUC'S VISUAL ARTS DEPARTMENT On May 28, Pacific Union College's Visual Arts Department hosted its annual Diogenes Film Festival at the Cameo Cinema in St. Helena. With PUC Professor of Film Melissa Henry Pratt and Film Instructor Nephtali Marin as the hosts, 15 films were showcased to a full house of faculty, staff, and the PUC community. The night was filled with laughter, heart, and, of course, popcorn. With three awards presented, three PUC students, one alumna, and a student from PUC Preparatory received awards for their work.

PUC'S ESSAY CONTEST SUCCEEDS & CELEBRATES CREATIVE WRITING

The English Department at Pacific Union College received 230 entries for its fourth annual high school essay contest. With this many students submitting their stories, the Emerging Voices of the Pacific Union has grown tremendously in the last few years, surpassing last year's total of about 103 submissions. "We host the contest with the aim of encouraging young writers to continue pursuing their craft," said PUC English Department Chair Emily Logan. "We read every single essay with care."

PUC COLLABORATES WITH COMMUNITY IN TRAIL CLEANING

A few weeks prior to the annual Angwin to Angwish race held on May 3, Pacific Union College Enrollment Counselor Abraham Garrido partnered with 45 participants from the Redwood Trail Alliance and the St. Helena Thunderbird mountain biking group to clear leaves, trees, overgrown grass areas, and bushes throughout the trails adorning the college's 1,100 acres of forest.

PUC'S AIR EXPO TAKES OFF DURING HOMECOMING WEEKEND

On Sunday, April 19, Pacific Union College's aviation program hosted its annual Air Expo at the end of Homecoming Weekend alongside the Angwin Disaster Airlift Response Team (DART), creating a well-rounded and enjoyable experience that brought students, faculty, staff, and community members together.

PUC'S MEN'S VOLLEYBALL TEAM'S 36-YEAR TRANSFORMATION

Athletics in North American Seventh-day Adventist colleges and universities date back only 40 years. Because there was not a long history, Pacific Union College's Men's Pioneers Volleyball Team was established only during the 1989-1990 school year, when the college began its athletic program.

UPCOMING EVENTS:

JULY 9-18:
Soquel Camp Meeting

JULY 26 - AUG. 1:
Redwood Camp Meeting

AUG. 14 - 17:
Birding Bonanza & Alumni Retreat

AUG. 30 - SEPT. 1:
Pub Workshop

READ THE FULL ARTICLES, LEARN MORE ABOUT UPCOMING EVENTS AND SUBSCRIBE TO OUR EMAILS AT: puc.edu/puc-now

WHAT'S NEW

AT PACIFIC UNION COLLEGE

PUC HONORS THE CLASS OF 2026

From June 12 to 14, Pacific Union College proudly celebrated 316 graduates from 13 states and six countries, awarding a total of 345 degrees across the nursing, business, psychology, social work, visual arts, biology, world languages, and communication departments—awarding 169 associate's degrees, 167 bachelor's degrees, and nine master's degrees. Filling the seats at every service over the weekend were proud parents, faculty and staff, friends, and colleagues of the graduates who have left a lasting impact on the college campus.

PUC NAMES ROSS WINKLE AS EDUCATOR OF THE YEAR

On May 21, Pacific Union College Professor of New Testament Ross Winkle was honored as the 2025-2026 Educator of the Year during a special Community program at the PUC Church. He was selected by the student body for his spirited teaching, dedicated mentorship, and commitment to faith.

PUC LAUNCHES ADVENTIST AVIATION MISSION MUSEUM IN NEW FACILITY The Pacific Union College aviation program recently introduced the Adventist Aviation Museum in its new facility to alumni, students, faculty and staff, and community members. Across from Fisher Hall, where the program currently houses one of its simulators and classrooms, this new facility, aside from the Virgil O. Parrett Field Airport, serves as a modern-day exhibition honoring fellow Adventist missionaries and aviation pioneers while offering ample space for students in the fast-growing program.

PUC'S RN TO BSN PROGRAM RANKS #2 IN NURSE.ORG FOR 2026

The Pacific Union College nursing program is pleased to announce that, alongside its latest ranking of #7 for producing the highest-paid nurses nationwide, it has now been ranked #2 on Nurse.org for the accessibility, online and in-person offerings, length, and academic quality of its fast-growing RN-to-BSN program.

PUC RANKS #7 IN PRODUCING HIGHEST PAID NURSES

NATIONWIDE In May, Pacific Union College was ranked #7 for its bachelor's program in nursing, with graduates earning a median annual income of $141,000. PUC's RN-to-BSN program is accredited by the Accreditation Commission for Education in Nursing (ACEN) and is designed to prepare registered nurses for leadership, graduate education, population health, evidence-based practice, and professional nursing roles in today's healthcare environment.

PUC LAUNCHES HUMANITIES

DEGREE Through the collaborative efforts of those within the School of Arts, Humanities, and Professional Studies, Pacific Union College is thrilled to announce that its new Associate of Arts degree in Humanities has been approved and will officially be open for enrollment in fall 2026.

DIODEGENES FILM FESTIVAL: CELEBRATING PUC'S VISUAL ARTS DEPARTMENT

On May 28, Pacific Union College's Visual Arts Department hosted its annual Diogenes Film Festival at the Cameo Cinema in St. Helena. With PUC Professor of Film Melissa Henry Pratt and Film Instructor Nephtali Marin as the hosts, 15 films were showcased to a full house of faculty, staff, and the PUC community. The night was filled with laughter, heart, and, of course, popcorn. With three awards presented, three PUC students, one alumna, and a student from PUC Preparatory received awards for their work.

PUC'S ESSAY CONTEST SUCCEEDS & CELEBRATES CREATIVE WRITING

The English Department at Pacific Union College received 230 entries for its fourth annual high school essay contest. With this many students submitting their stories, the Emerging Voices of the Pacific Union has grown tremendously in the last few years, surpassing last year's total of about 103 submissions. "We host the contest with the aim of encouraging young writers to continue pursuing their craft," said PUC English Department Chair Emily Logan. "We read every single essay with care."

PUC COLLABORATES WITH COMMUNITY IN TRAIL CLEANING

A few weeks prior to the annual Angwin to Angwish race held on May 3, Pacific Union College Enrollment Counselor Abraham Garrido partnered with 45 participants from the Redwood Trail Alliance and the St. Helena Thunderbird mountain biking group to clear leaves, trees, overgrown grass areas, and bushes throughout the trails adorning the college's 1,100 acres of forest.

PUC'S AIR EXPO TAKES OFF DURING HOMECOMING WEEKEND

On Sunday, April 19, Pacific Union College's aviation program hosted its annual Air Expo at the end of Homecoming Weekend alongside the Angwin Disaster Airlift Response Team (DART), creating a well-rounded and enjoyable experience that brought students, faculty, staff, and community members together.

PUC'S MEN'S VOLLEYBALL TEAM'S 36-YEAR TRANSFORMATION

Athletics in North American Seventh-day Adventist colleges and universities date back only 40 years. Because there was not a long history, Pacific Union College's Men's Pioneers Volleyball Team was established only during the 1989-1990 school year, when the college began its athletic program.

UPCOMING EVENTS:

JULY 9-18:

Soquel Camp Meeting

JULY 26 - AUG. 1:

Redwood Camp Meeting

AUG. 14 - 17:

Birding Bonanza & Alumni Retreat

AUG. 30 - SEPT. 1:

Pub Workshop

READ THE FULL ARTICLES, LEARN MORE ABOUT UPCOMING EVENTS AND SUBSCRIBE TO OUR EMAILS AT: puc.edu/puc-now