Student Learning Outcomes

The successful student can:

- Critically analyze their own work and that of their peers.
- Demonstrate technical proficiency with the materials and tools of their discipline.
- Organize and produce original works of art that contribute to professional portfolios.
- Respect the aesthetic diversity of others.
- Make work that is creative and authentic.

Degree Outlook

The BA in Art, Fine Art Emphasis at PUC's Visual Arts Department seeks to nurture a student's artistic skill and conceptual framework within the inspiring environment of creative, Christian community. Students explore a wide range of 2D and 3D media as they develop their personal artistic voices and professional portfolios. Along with a firm grasp of artistic concepts and historical movements, they will learn ways that their creative problem solving skills are applicable in multiple disciplines. This degree serves as a strong foundation for graduate work in the arts, or as holistic preparation for a career in other professional fields.
