Student Learning Outcomes

The successful student can:

- Identify and analyze the elements and history of film and television production.
- Critically analyze their own work and that of their peers.
- Demonstrate technical proficiency in film and television production.
- Produce and organize work that contributes to their professional portfolios.
- Work both independently and collaboratively to produce original film or television programming.

Degree Outlook

The BA in Film at PUC’s Visual Arts Department seeks to create filmmakers within an inspiring, creative, Christian community. Through coursework, students discover their voice, experience the technical rigor of filmmaking and seek to create work that expands the cultural conversation of cinema. This foundation allows our diverse alumni to pursue careers in the industry, both in Hollywood and across the globe.
