Occupational Information

The B.S. in Music: Composition Emphasis at PUC's Department of Music seeks to nurture a student's musical talent in a creative Christian environment. Students are challenged to develop composition skills for live instruments for electronic media, for the concert hall, films, television, and video games. They will also learn to talk and write about music effectively, and will explore entrepreneurial ways to create a career related to music.

This emphasis is designed for those who wish to compose music and provides a solid foundation for those interested in pursuing further studies in composition with the focus on visual media are available through collaboration with students in PUC's film program in the Department of Visual Arts.

This degree provides a solid liberal arts education with a focus on creative problem-solving and the ability to work effectively as an individual and as part of a team. It is also an excellent starting point for careers in the music industry.
