Health Sciences, A.S. or B.S.

Pacific Union College offers an A.S. and B.S. degree with a major in Health Sciences. These majors can be taken in conjunction with the pre-dental hygiene requirements. For more information, see page NHSC-06 or NHSC-07, or contact the Health Sciences advisor in the Nursing and Health Sciences Department.

Occupational Information

General Areas of Service

Dental Hygienists may work as independent contractors, in dental offices, in school systems, for health-related or governmental agencies, or may teach in a Dental Hygiene program.

Professional Training

To be licensed one must graduate from an accredited Dental Hygiene program and pass both a written and clinical examination. The B.S. degree is required to do research, teach, or work in public or school health programs.

Denominational Opportunities

There are increasing openings here and abroad.

Job Outlook

Employment opportunities are expected to continue to grow 19% from 2014 to 2024 (www.bls.gov).

* Recommended to assist in preparation for a dental hygiene career.

Admission Information

- For entrance to the junior professional year at Loma Linda University, the applicant must have the following:
- 96 quarter hours of acceptable college credit (grades of C or higher).
 - Excellent academic standing. The entering average GPA for 2014 was 3.2 and average science GPA was 2.9.
 - Minimum of 20 hours of shadowing.
 - Acceptable personal qualities.
 - A formal interview (by invitation only).
 - Three letters of referencing including: spiritual leader, employer, and science professor. A PUC Preprofessional Recommendation Committee letter is preferred in place of the science professor letter. Talk to your advisor for more information about the committee letter.
 - The subject requirements outlined on the other side of this sheet.

Application

The applicant should apply between August and early December for best chances. The application is made through the ADEA Dental Hygiene Centralized Application Service (DHCAS). Apply at www.adea.org/dhcas.aspx.

At the time of application request a PUC Preprofessional Recommendation Committee letter at the Office of the Academic Dean.

The Dental Hygiene program begins in mid September.
